House-to-House Salesman Elects To Go to Jail

Electing to serve four days in the city jail in lieu of paying a $30 fine for soliciting photographs without a city license, James Patrick McGarthy, 50, of 20 Chestnut street, Long Beach, completed his "hitch" in the local jail this week according to Police Chief John Stron.

McGarthy was arrested by Torrance Police last week upon complaint of residents of the Kettler Knolls area. The man said he represented a photo studio in San Pedro and was attempting to sell a "coupon" deal when arrested by the local police.

License fee for non-resident business firms is $5 a day or $50 a year.

GARY TREZISE
 Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Tuesday in Stone & Myers Chapel for Gary Trezise, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford M. Trezise, 2145 Plaza Del Amo, whose death occurred May 1. Interment followed at Pacific Crest Cemetery.

Camino Students 'Speak Their Mind' at Banquet

El Camino "Sales Speech and Personalityists" almost 100 strong, got up and spoke their minds at their own banquet at Irons Cottage, Redondo Beach, last Wednesday night, May 4, as the last session of the course in Sales Speech and Personality.

The students had honored guests present to inspire fear in the field and Dr. and Mrs. Lyle Tusing. Forrest G. Murdock, El Camino president and George Clarke, public relations director of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank were present, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arfwedson, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Shef-to give a 60-second talk on "What This Course Has Meant To Me." President Murdock discussed the future of El Camino College, and George Clarke, one of America's top showmen and banquet authorities gave some inside tips on how to run and build up social functions.

Motion pictures followed the speeches. The films taken during regular class sessions showed each student in the class and how he walks, as part of posture and walking analysis.
